An effect of the lowering of the discount rate at the Bank of England was to bring the rates of Foreign Exchange closer together, the sixty days' bills being advanced to 1894, while the sight bills were unaltered. We annex closing rates:

Money on call at one time commanded as much as 7 per cent gold, on pledge of the usual collateral, though the ruling rates were 6247. After the close of the market, the balances lent at lower figures. The market for commercial paper is active at 729 per cent for prime names.

The Government bond market feels the influence of easy money, and the continued purchases by bankers here for this and the foreign markets. The advance in gold late in the day also had a strengthening effect, and occasioned an advance in prices. At the close, 1867s and 1046s were in demand at 1153 and 1131, respectively: 1868s were actively traded in. Registered Sixes sold at 1151@1151; Coupon Sixes, 1177@1177; Registered Fives, 1111, and Coupon Fives at 1131; 1869s at 115, and 1868s, at 116@116. Fish & Hatchett report as follows, at 4 p.m.:
